

Job Title: Functional Medicine Registered Dietitian Nutritionist or Certified Nutritionist

Integrative and Functional Registered Dietitian Nutrition (RDN), Certified Nutritionist (CN in WA State) or Certified Nutritionist/Licensed Mental Health Counselor (Associate) (CN/LMHC(A))

Starkel Nutrition (SN), a functional medicine-oriented medical, nutrition, and mental health counseling clinic located in the University District of Seattle (as well as telehealth), is looking for a skilled, reliable, flexible and compassionate RDN or CN to counsel clients. Having an LMHC (A) is a bonus. Our clinic has several other nutritionists who value a warm, compassionate, and friendly environment. We are located in a wonderful, supportive building dedicated to health practitioners and other small businesses. We enjoy working together and each other's company. This position is currently telehealth. We have nutritionists in the Sound and in Bellingham. We will consider someone in other areas of Washington, as long as you are licensed in the state.

We are interested in someone who is willing and eager to counsel clients, network in the community, continue learning and evolving their nutrition knowledge and counseling skills. This position may be part-time or full-time. The full-time position will grow into full-time as your clientele grows but will start as part-time.

Nutritional Counseling

Enjoy a thriving practice within a well-established and well-known (13 years) clinic with excellent connections in the medical community. Your responsibilities include excellent client care and follow-up, charting using our electronic charting system, coordinating care with other healthcare practitioners, and participating in clinic administrative, marketing, and practice-building efforts.

We are looking for one of more of these speciality areas of focus:

- Nutrigenomics
- Metabolic issues (diabetes, cholesterol, insulin resistance)
- Mindful eating and healthy weight loss
- Eating disorders/disordered eating
- Infant and children's health
- Maternal and women's health (pregnancy, post-pregnancy, PCOS, hormones, menopause)
- Functional Medicine nutrition
- Autoimmune health
- GI health

There are opportunities for those who are interested in leading classes, giving talks, managing groups, etc. as well.

Position Responsibilities:

- Counsel clients and guide them through their journeys
- Daily electronic chart note writing
- Attend and participate in weekly staff meetings
- Prepare supplement reviews for the team
- Write blogs for our electronic content
- Continue and create relationships with referring practitioners
- Possibly start an online or live support group (depending on your area)
- Help out with the team as needed
- Attend continuing education events/online classes to increase nutrition knowledge

Ideal Candidate:

- At least 3 years experience in nutrition post-graduation working with clients
- Master's degree or bachelor's with experience
- Credentialed RDN or CN or CN/LMHC
- Additional education in counseling (please outline)
- Continuing education in nutrition in a speciality
- History of working with people and enjoying it
- Proven counseling skills in difficult situations (please describe this in your cover letter)
- Excellent communication and time management skills
- Mature, poised, empathetic, and optimistic
- Excellent organizational skills
- Excellent references
- Financial ability to start part-time and income grows with client load

Compensation:

Compensation is client appointment-based as well as some paid clinic work. Our nutritionists are well-paid.

Benefits (Full time only)

- Vacation/sick pay
- Federal holidays paid
- Health, vision, dental insurance after 2 months once full time

Interested candidates should look over our website (www.starkelnutrition.com) and submit a resume and a cover letter addressing interest in working for Starkel Nutrition and why you would be a good fit for our team to hiring@starkelnutrition.com. We will not answer applications sent via LinkedIn. Interviews will begin immediately.

Please indicate why you are passionate about this work, and why you would be a good fit for our team. Please be specific about your strengths and weaknesses, past experiences, and future goals. We look forward to hearing from you!
